

HOUSE RESOLUTION 331
By Armstrong

A RESOLUTION to commend Stacey Washington for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Stacey Washington is one such individual who has distinguished herself in her role as a legislative intern for Chairman Joe Armstrong and the House Health and Human Resources Committee; Stacey's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators she assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, the daughter of Booker T. Washington, Jr., and Marita Washington and the sister of Natascha and Victoria Washington, Stacey graduated from Northeast High School in Clarksville before launching herself into her collegiate career; and

WHEREAS, a graduate of Austin Peay University, where she was highly regarded by her peers, Stacey achieved academic success, including recognition on the Dean's List, while majoring in Political Science and participating in numerous extracurricular activities, including serving in Pi Sigma Alpha and the Vice President of Austin Peay's College Democrats; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further her studies, Ms. Washington brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2006 session of the One Hundred Fourth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, Stacey possesses a deep interest in politics, and has remained politically active in the Clarksville/Montgomery County area; she is a member of the Montgomery County Democrat Party and volunteered her time campaigning for General Wesley Clark during his 2002 presidential bid; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2006 legislative session, Stacey has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern; and

WHEREAS, Stacey Washington has performed her many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED FOURTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Stacey Washington for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Representative Joe Armstrong and the House Health and Human Resources Committee and extend to her our best wishes for every future success.
